

Local Food is the Guardian of Biodiversity

Project CICERO (Citizens & Communities for European Right to quality and local Food)

Copenhagen, 19th - 21st of September 2025

Organized by Grønt Marked

AGENDA

Friday 19th of September	• 13:30 Welcome of the delegations in Copenhagen • 14:00 Guided boat tour and introduction to Copenhagen's most significant sites • 15:30-16:30 Guided city tour and networking • 17:00 Welcome to the Grønt Marked Headquarters and participation during the Climate Justice Debate at Mellemfolkeligt Samvirke • 18:00 - 20:00 Informal networking dinner at Mellemfolkeligt Samvirkes Climate Justice Days at Fælledvej 11, 2200 Copenhagen Nørrebro
Saturday 20th of September: Farm Trip (program from 8:00-ca. 16:00)	• 8:00 meeting at DGI Byen, Ingerslevgade and bus transfer to Klarskov Frugt and Hyldemarken farms. • 10:00 Farm Visit at Klarskov Frugt (Klarskovvej 69 - 4220 Korsør) including a tour, the harvesting of apples, as well as a meeting between partners to discuss the CICERO project, as well as potential future collaborations • 12:00 Networking lunch at the farm provided by the Grønt Marked Kitchen • 13:00 Farm Visit at Hyldemarken (Bildsøvej 116, 4200 Slagelse) • 16:00 Return to Copenhagen with arrival ca. At 17.30
Sunday 21st of September: Biodiversity Festival at Grønt Marked (program from 09:45-ca. 18:00)	Biodiversity Festival: 10:00 to 18:00 At Skjolds Plads in Copenhagen, Nørrebro. Activities during the festival will include farmers market, workshops, talks, a biodiversity exhibition (with your products), music, food, and drinks.

CICERO program during the festival:

- 09:45 Arrival at the Festival in Skjolds Plads
- 10:30 Guided tour of the market to show the diversity of products and producers at the market
- 12:00 Networking lunch at the farmers market
- 13:00-13:45 CICERO Panel conversation: “Edible Biodiversity in Practice: Lessons from Across Europe” featuring
 - Lidia Moroń-Morawska, beekeeper from Poland
 - Dora Ernoić, market organizer from Croatia
 - Daniele Taffon, environmental conservation expert and project manager of the CICERO project from Italy
 - Gerda Zijlstra and Robert Jan Piek, board members from the Dutch farmers market Rotterdamse Oogst
 - Leon Johansen, farmer and vendor at Grønt Marked in Denmark.
- CICERO “from soil to plate” exhibition: all day
The exhibition highlights how biodiversity in food production can benefit the environment, human health, and local economies. Each CICERO delegation contributes by setting up a European corner, presenting their country-specific biodiversity products and practices.

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are, however, those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or CERV program. Neither the European Union nor CERV program can be held responsible for them.